The Swaddle UPTM is the only zip-up swaddle available that allows your baby to sleep in the arms-up position. The Swaddle UPTM requires no complicated wrapping, so everyone can swaddle right every time. This natural sleep position that allows your baby access to his or her hands for self-soothing. Babies often use their hands to settle themselves to sleep by sucking on their fingers or gently rubbing their cheeks. Medical research suggests that babies sleep better and for longer if they are able to self-soothe. So self-soothing equals more sleep for the whole family.

We make two unique hair ties that are awesome for keeping hair up and out of the way! The EZ BUN styles the hair in less than 15 seconds, can be used during childbirth (my midwife, her assistant, and I all wore one when I gave birth to my daughter Luann). It can also be worn swimming (or during waterbirths) and does not tangle or break the hair. The Flexi8 clip is an all-one-piece beaded barrette that has a pin attached so it can't get lost. It does not rust or tarnish.
